Having work accepted for display is a juried process. Please email us with photos of your work and we will contact you with information for when we will review your work in person.

No nudity, profanity, sexually explicit or frightening images (horror) will be accepted.

All exhibition pieces must be family friendly.

All work must be professionally prepared for exhibition and must remain intact under regular maintenance (i.e.) dusting and vibration from walking/vacuuming.

Glass and metal objects (sculpture and freestanding work) must be secured to guard the safety of the viewing public as well as can be reasonably established.

The jury committee will insure that works exhibited in the gallery conform to the standards as set forth by the bylaws.

Commission rates for all sales is 20%.

Artist is responsible for remitting all sales tax collected on their sale to the NCDR

Sales made by credit card will be paid by check to the artist as issued from the gallery minus a $2.00 check processing fee and the applicable percentage charged by the credit card company for credit processing.

Artists are required to inventory all work in and out of the gallery. Please include a copy of your NC Tax ID number for your file.
